Brief bio

EN Eirini (Bsc Psychology, MA Educational, Developmental & Cognitive Psychology, PSTP on cognitive behavioural therapy & Systemic psychotherapy) has been working as a psychotherapist and a trainer since 2009. She is involved with children and adults by implementing intervention programs on improving children’s life skills, working on diversity and emotional intelligence. She has co-ordinate various workshops on non-formal education techniques, European citizenship, social exclusion, volunteerism and activism through European co-funding programmes. She enjoys outdoor activities and she has participated and implemented activities on orienteering and hiking with outdoor groups in Cyprus Mountains. You can find her somewhere in the nature or on the dance floor ‘twisting again’.
